

CROSSEXAMINATION:

Frances Voorhees left the Hall house on Friday with her mother (497).

Nothing unusual about washing the silk socks. She often washed those and Mrs. Hall's stockings (497).

Nothing in Mrs. Hall's demeanor when she gave Barbara the socks to make Barbara think she thought Dr. Hall dead (497).

Still Barbara's opinion that Mrs. Hall did not know of gossip (498).

Di Martini often talked with Barbara and Louise and with Willie Stevens and Mrs. Hall (499).

Di Martini talked once with Maria Gildea (499).

Di Martini never at any time in any way suggested an untruth (499).

Old man Fisher stayed at the Hall house until nearly Christmas 1922 coming about the time Di Martini did and acting as night watchman (499-500).

Willie sometimes on Sunday evenings when joking with Barbara would show her a pistol he used to keep locked in his desk. (501)

REDIRECT:

When Mrs. Hall gave Barbara the socks to wish Barbara got the impression Dr. Hall was alive. (503)

Mrs. Hall never used the particular language before "Wash them for him". (504).
